

Contents

Introduction — 1

Chapter 1

Blackness of a Different Color: Colorism in Early Republic and Antebellum Charleston, South Carolina, 1790–1865 — 12

- An Introduction to Charleston During the Early Republic — 13
- The Impact of the Haitian Revolution on Charleston — 16
- Slavery in Charleston — 20
- Slavery and Complexion in Charleston — 23
- Medical Pseudo-Science Defines Blackness — 25
- Colorism in the Southern Slave Trade — 28
- The Free Persons of Color in Charleston — 30
- Complexion Based Fraternal Societies — 33
- Education of the Enslaved and Free Populations of Charleston — 36
- Colorism in the African Methodist Episcopal Church — 40
- Colorism and the Denmark Vesey Conspiracy of 1822 — 43
- Black Charlestonians Emigrate Abroad — 48
- Charleston on the Eve of Civil War — 52
- Conclusion — 56

Chapter 2

White by Courtesy: The Californios of Alta California, 1770s–1870s — 58

- The Californios of Alta California — 61
- Establishing Alta California as Spanish and White — 63
- Keeping California Spanish and White — 69
- The Californio Claim to Whiteness — 71
- The Casta System in Alta California — 73
- Transformational Social and Political Change in Alta California — 79
- Californio and Anglo-American Settler Colonialism — 81
- Californio Whiteness in the Eyes of Anglo-Americans — 83
- Californios and the Mexican American War — 86
- Determining Whiteness at the Constitutional Convention of 1849 — 88
- Californio and Mexican Animosity — 91
- The Californios Depicted in Fiction — 95
- Fiction Mirroring Reality — 98
- Pablo de La Guerra's Citizenship and Whiteness — 100
- California Constitutional Convention of 1878 — 102
- Conclusion — 103

Chapter 3

Whiter than White: Mormons Confront the Issue of Whiteness in Utah, 1830–1930 — 105

- An Introduction to Mormonism — 107
- Race and Complexion Among the Mormons — 110
- The Racial Conflict in the Book of Mormon — 110
- The Importance of Whiteness in the Book of Mormon — 113
- Mormons in the Eyes of Western Travelers — 115
- Manifest Destiny and the Mormon Church — 117
- The Creation of Zion in Nauvoo — 122
- Settler Colonialism and the Mormon Church — 123
- Obstacles to Mormon Acceptance in America — 126
- Mormons Offer their Claims to an Ideal Racial Lineage — 128
- Descendants of Israel — 130
- Mormon Physical Superiority — 132
- The Ideal Mormon Convert — 135
- The U.S. Government Confronts Polygamy — 136
- Mormon Integration in American Culture — 140
- The Ideal Mormon Skin Tone — 141
- Conclusion — 144

Chapter 4

Island Whiteness: Defining Whiteness in Hawaii, 1840s–1920s — 146

- The Constitutional Era — 149
- The Populations of Hawaii — 150
- Creation of a Racial Hierarchy — 153
- The Prospect of a New Race in Hawaii — 158
- The Indigenous Hawaiian a Lost White Race? — 160
- Anglo-American Manifest Destiny and Settler Colonialism in Hawaii — 163
- The Scientific Status of Indigenous Hawaiians — 165
- Indigenous Hawaiian Legal Claims to Whiteness — 168
- Japanese Ethnicity in Hawaii — 172
- Japanese Whiteness — 173
- Japanese Hawaiian Claims to Whiteness — 175
- The Japanese “Yellow Peril” in Hawaii — 180
- Japanese Manifest Destiny and Settler Colonialism in Hawaii — 181
- The Prospect of Assimilation of the Japanese in Hawaii — 183
- Anglo-American Haole Sun-Tanning in Hawaii — 184
- Conclusion — 187

Conclusion —	189
Slavery —	189
Manifest Destiny —	191
Settler Colonialism —	192
Racial Hierarchy —	193
Performative Whiteness —	195
 Bibliography —	 197
 Index —	 213

