

Acknowledgments

This book is a revised and expanded version of the dissertation submitted by the author to the Graduate Program in Holocaust and Genocide Studies at Gratz College, approved in May 2024, as part of the requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy degree.

The author extends thanks to the esteemed members of the dissertation committee, Dr. Jeff Benvenuto and Dr. Ruth Sandberg, with special acknowledgment to advisor Dr. Carson Phillips, Manager of Academic Initiatives at the Azrieli Foundation's Holocaust Survivor Memoirs Program in Toronto, Canada. Their invaluable guidance, insights, and support significantly enriched this work.

Special appreciation is extended to Dr. Carson Phillips for reviewing and advising on the new version of the book, offering further insights that helped refine and enhance its scope.

The author is also grateful to Dr. Ayal Feinberg, Director of the Center for Holocaust Studies & Human Rights at Gratz College, for his unwavering support throughout this project and across his academic career.

The author also wishes to express gratitude to Dr. Michael Shmidman, longtime Dean of the Graduate School of Jewish Studies at Touro University, for his academic guidance and valuable insights.

Sincere thanks are likewise extended to Holocaust survivor, the late Dr. Lester Eckman, an accomplished author who devoted many years to researching the Holocaust and other areas of Jewish history, and to Holocaust survivor Dr. Mordechai Paldiel, who served for many years as Director of the Department of the Righteous Among the Nations at Yad Vashem, for their valuable insights and guidance whenever it was sought.

Additionally, heartfelt thanks go to Mrs. Mindy Blechman and the entire faculty and staff of Gratz College for their unwavering support whenever it was needed.

Lastly, on a more personal note, profound gratitude goes to my wife, Carol, and the entire family for their boundless support and encouragement. Their love and understanding made this work possible, and I am forever grateful.
