

CONTENTS

PREFACE	7
LIST OF TABLES	15
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	16
INTRODUCTION	19

PART ONE: ALIENATION IN THE PRIOR RUSSIAN LITERARY TRADITION

I. LITERARY PRECEDENTS: PRE-SOVIET	27
Critical Intimations	27
The Nineteenth Century	31
Čackij	34
Onegin	35
Pečorin	36
Bašmačkin	39
Oblov	40
Bazarov	41
Ivan Karamazov	43
Andrej Bolkonskij	46
Treplev	47
General Characteristics	48
The Early Twentieth Century	54
Assessment	55
II. LITERARY PRECEDENTS: SOVIET	63
The Soviet 'Underground Man'	63
'Complicated' Characters	64
Other Categories	72
Assessment	75

PART TWO: IDENTIFICATION OF THE ALIENATED HERO
IN SOVIET PROSE FICTION OF THE FIRST 'THAW' DECADE

III. SURVEY AND SELECTION	79
Sources	79
Works Surveyed	80
Works Selected	80
Plot Summations	83
Aftermath	90
IV. SOURCES OF THE HERO'S ALIENATION: RECURRING ARENAS OF CONFLICT AND UNDERLYING THEMES	91
Critical Estimates	91
Tabulation of Plot Situations Showing Character Alienation	105
Conclusions	110

PART THREE: THE 'THAW' HERO AS AN OBJECT OF PRAISE AND/OR DERISION

V. POSITIVE VS. NEGATIVE ASPECTS OF CHARACTERIZATION . . .	115
Narrative and Verbal Structures Seen as Extrinsic and In- trinsic Indices of Author Intent	118
Analysis of Selected Plot Situations in Terms of Author Bias	128
(1) Panova, Seasons of the Year — Gennadij Kuprijanov: Trust and approval of family, employers, society . . .	128
(2) Panova, Seasons of the Year — Bortaševič: Integrity, conscience, social responsibility, self-respect	130
(3) Zorin, Guests — Pokrovskij: Petr Kirpičev, the bureau- cracy	132
(4) Èrenburg, The Thaw — Dmitrij Koroteev, Lena Žurav- leva, Sonja Puxova, Vera Šerer: Emotional self-confi- dence, integrity, loved ones	133
(5) Èrenburg, The Thaw — Volodja Puxov: Artistic integrity	136
(6) Èrenburg, The Thaw — Evgenij Sokolovskij: Žuravlev, the bureaucracy	138
(7) Kornejčuk, Wings — Petr Romodan: Dremljuga, the bureaucracy	138
(8) Kornejčuk, Wings — People: Truth, integrity, self re- spect	140
(9) Kornejčuk, Wings — Petr Romodan: His wife, Anna, and daughter, Lida	141

- (10) Granin, One's Own Opinion — Minaev: Ethical responsibility, intellectual integrity, courage, self-respect . . . 142
- (11) Dudincev, Not by Bread Alone — Lopatkin: Drozdov, the bureaucracy, intellectual conformity . . . 144
- (12) Nilin, Cruelty — Venjamin (Ven'ka) Malyšev: Others' inhumanity, injustice, utilitarian morality . . . 148
- (13) Jašin, Levers — Citizens: Mutual trust, freedom of thought . . . 151
- (14) Kaverin, Quests and Hopes — Tat'jana Petrovna Vlasenkova: Kramov, the bureaucracy . . . 153
- (15) Kaverin, Quests and Hopes — Tat'jana Petrovna Vlasenkova: Her husband, Andrej . . . 155
- (16) Nagibin, Light in the Window — Vasilij Petrovič: Fellow citizens . . . 155
- (17) Pogodin, Petrarch's Sonnet — Dmitrij Alekseevič Suxodolov: Conventional impersonality, insensitivity, conformity . . . 156
- (18) Ždanov, Journey Home — Pavel Varygin: Unpleasant reality, the people . . . 159
- (19) Pasternak, Doctor Živago — Jurij Andreevič Živago: Sense of purpose and self-determination, political power, the regime, political inhumanity, regimentation . . . 160
- (20) Pasternak, Doctor Živago — Paša Antipov: Human values, human life . . . 184
- (21) Kuznecov, Continuation of a Legend — Tolja: Sense of purpose, self-understanding, self-sacrifice . . . 186
- (22) Kazakov, The Renegade — Egor: Traditional mundane, sensible, unfeeling existence . . . 188
- (23) Kazakov, The Renegade — Egor: Responsibility, conscientiousness, ambition, sense of duty . . . 190
- (24) Terc, The Trial Begins — Karlinskij: Regimentation, impersonality, de-humanization, extinction, insignificance, personal satisfactions . . . 190
- (25) Terc, The Trial Begins — Vladimir Petrovič Globov, colleagues, people: Truth, humanitarian values, freedom . . . 194
- (26) Tendrjakov, Three, Seven, Ace — Aleksandr (Saša) Dubinin: His men's loyalty, justice . . . 196
- (27) Tendrjakov, Three, Seven, Ace — Leška Malinkin: Courage, conscience, integrity, illusions, loyalty . . . 198

(28) Aksenov, Colleagues — Aleksej (Leksej) Maksimov: Mundane life, the uneventful future, socialist self-sacrifice	199
(29) Aksenov, Colleagues — Aleksandr (Saša) Dmitrievič: Fedor Bugrov	200
(30) Tendrjakov, The Trial — Semen Teterin: Truth, integrity, courage, loyalty, conscience, self-respect	201
(31) Tendrjakov, The Trial — Konstantin Sergeevič Dudyrev: Faith in Teterin and the people	204
(32) Aksenov, Ticket to the Stars — Dimka Denisov: Respon- sibility, vocation	204
(33) Aksenov, Ticket to the Stars — Viktor Denisov: Com- promise, materialism, self-seeking	207
(34) Nekrasov, Kira Georgievna — Kira Georgievna: Ethical values, conscience, truth, artistic excellence, personal satisfaction	208
(35) Rozov, ABCDE — Volodja: Sense of purpose, vocation, conformity, compromise, dogmatism, world conditions .	210
(36) Bondarev, Silence — Sergej and Nikolaj Voxminev: Social justice, Uvarov, Bykov, slanderers	213
(37) Bondarev, Silence — Nikolaj Grigor'evič Voxminev: His son, Sergej	215
(38) Bondarev, Silence — Painter, Fedor Mukomolov, and poet, Xolmin: Critical toleration, artistic freedom . . .	215
(39) Tendrjakov, Short Circuit — Vasilij Vasil'evič Stoljarskij and other subordinates (Boris Evgen'evič Šackix): Ivan Sokovin, confidence, initiative, self-fulfillment.	216
(40) Tendrjakov, Short Circuit — Ivan Kapitonovič Sokovin: Human values	217
(41) Tendrjakov, Short Circuit — Vadim Sokovin: His father, Ivan	218
(42) Kazakov, Adam and Eve — Ageev: Vika, other people.	219
(43) Kazakov, Adam and Eve — Ageev: Criticism, artistic freedom	221
(44) Solženicyn, One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovič — Prisoners: Inhumanity, injustice.	221
(45) Tarsis, Tale of a Bluebottle Fly — Ioann Sinemuxov: Rational self-discipline, socialist discipline, theories, col- lectivist idealism	226
(46) Aržak, This is Moscow Speaking — People: Duplicity, mutual fear, mistrust	228

(47) Aržak, This is Moscow Speaking — Artist, Saša Čuprov, and poet, Arbatov: Conventional Soviet art, absence of genuine realism or artistic freedom	230
(48) Solženicyn, Matrena's Home — Matrena Vasil'evna Grigor'eva: Compassion of relatives and neighbors . .	231
(49) Solženicyn, Matrena's Home — Matrena's neighbors: Fellow-feeling	233
(50) Solženicyn, For the Good of the Cause — Teachers and students, Fedor Mixeevič, Ivan Gračikov: The bureaucracy	233
Assessment of Authors' Biases.	236

PART FOUR: THE 'THAW' HERO AS BOTH THE OUTGROWTH OF A PRIOR LITERARY TRADITION AND A DISTINCTLY NEW CHARACTER CREATION

VI. LITERARY POLITICS AND THE SOVIET 'THAW'	245
Pertinent Events.	245
Analysis	256
Critical Assessment of Historical Trends	261
VII. CONCLUDING ANALYSIS	269
The Hero Compared with Similar Figures in the Prior Russian Literary Tradition	269
The Hero Seen in Terms of Political Events of the 'Thaw' Period	277
'Schools' of the 'Thaw' Period: Literary Viewpoints	285
Summation	291
APPENDIX A: Critical Reviews of Prose in the 'Thaw' Period . . .	295
APPENDIX B: Titles of 'Thaw' Works with Alienated Protagonists	301
APPENDIX C: Synopses of Selected Plots Showing Character Alienation	308
BIBLIOGRAPHY	387
INDEX	401

