

Table of Contents

About this book — V

List of Authors — IX

Andreas Moberg

Towards non-unidisciplinary European Studies — 1

Part I: Thinking about the “How’s” and “Why’s” of Non-unidisciplinary European Studies

Karin H. Zelano

1 What is European Studies?

Thematic and disciplinary span, conceptions of Europe and practice-theory dialogue — 17

Mechthild Roos

2 A conceptual guide to non-unidisciplinary research in European Studies — 35

Monika de Silva and Felix Lehmann

3 European Studies as an interdisciplinary research field? A comprehensive empirical analysis of interdisciplinarity in European Studies — 61

Part II: Doing Non-unidisciplinary European Studies

Katharina Vajta

4 Eating at the border. Gastronomy, regional identity and the Alsatian dialect — 83

Ivan Lo Giudice

5 Ernesto Dethorey, a cultural mediator from the exile. Journalism, translation and networking — 107

Gregg Bucken-Knapp

6 Exploring the potential of comics-based research: Concepts, examples and considerations — 127

Mats Andrén

7 European research at the University of Gothenburg: Multi- and interdisciplinarity — 157

Index — 165