

Contents

Al-Qushayrī's Under-Explored Theological Legacy — 1

The significance of al-Qushayrī, the theologian — 3

Al-Qushayrī's theology: a misjudged legacy? — 6

Chapter 1: Al-Qushayrī's Defining Milieu — 16

Ash'arism and Sufism: affiliations and intersections — 18

Political tensions: Mu'tazilites and the miḥna — 23

Complex interactions with Ḥanbalism: from rivalry to reconciliation — 26

Chapter 2: Key Features Of Ash'arite Evolution — 29

Al-Ash'arī and the origins of Ash'arism — 30

Flourishing of Ash'arite thought post al-Ash'arī — 36

Al-Ash'arī's students – a bridge to greatness — 37

Ibn Fūrak and al-Isfarā'īnī – expounding Ash'arite theology — 38

Al-Bāqillānī and al-Juwaynī – expanding Ash'arite theology — 42

Chapter 3: On God's Attributes — 47

Cataphatic theology: asserting Divine attributes — 48

A semblance of theological consistency — 51

Countering ta'tīl and tashbīh — 55

Adopting al-Ash'arī's ambivalence on God's speech — 63

God's attributes viewed through a Sufi lens — 72

Conclusions — 76

Apophatic theology: embracing Divine transcendence — 77

Challenging classical Ash'arite sensibilities — 81

The prevalence of Sufi apophasis — 84

Conclusions — 90

Chapter 4: On God's Relationship With Man — 92

Moral obligation: upholding God's sovereignty — 95

Critiquing rational ethics — 96

Unwavering defence of God's omnipotence — 101

Divine predestination and human free will: theological tensions — 104

Theological reticence on human agency — 108

Challenging free will in a Sufi context — 113

Conclusions — 130

Chapter 5: On Epistemology — 132

Ta'wil: allegorical interpretation in theology and Sufism — 134

Restricting ta'wil in theological discourse — 137

Expanding ta'wil within a Sufi framework — 143

Ta'wil as the domain of the Sufi elect — 147

Belief and knowledge: an epistemological hierarchy — 151

Contrasting conceptions of belief — 154

Constructing an epistemological hierarchy — 159

Championing Sufi esoteric knowledge — 170

Conclusions — 180

Al-Qushayrī's Theological Synthesis: Bridging Orthodoxy and Esotericism — 183

Bibliography — 189

Index — 199