

Contents

Michael Molls

Words of welcome to the book “Existential Elucidation” — VII

Scribal Abbreviations — IX

Eckhard Frick, Rico Gutschmidt

Preface — 1

Rico Gutschmidt

Keyword: Boundary — 5

Part A: The philosophy of boundary situations

Giovanni Pietro Basile

Systematics and unity of Jaspers’ boundary situations — 11

Kurt Salamun

Karl Jaspers’ conception of boundary situations and its implications for spiritual care — 35

Thomas Fuchs

Boundary situations

Karl Jaspers’ contribution to spiritual care — 49

Alice Holzhey-Kunz

Doubts – curiosity – benefit

Stages of reading Jaspers — 61

Rico Gutschmidt

Existential boundaries. Jaspers on the interminable struggle with our finitude — 81

Part B: Perspectives on application

Eckhard Frick

Preferring existential darkness to elucidation?

About defences elicited by boundary situations — 93

Emmy van Deurzen

Working with death, struggle and guilt — 115

Hilmar Schmiedl-Neuburg

Jaspers and Bion

Existential elucidation and ontological transformation — 137

Alexander Schnorbusch

From Karl Jaspers to Irvin D. Yalom and Emmy van Deurzen:

Boundary situations and ultimate concerns in existential therapy — 157

Part C: Interdisciplinary research

Heidi Frølund Pedersen, Aida Hougaard Andersen, Laurids Melo Leth-Espensen,
Ricko Damberg Nissen, Karsten Flemming Thomsen

Existential communication in post-secular societies among psychologists and chaplains — 173

Godehard Brüntrup

Recollected experiences of death as boundary situations — 193

Ni An

Echoes of Jaspers' concept of 'boundary situation' in two novels — 213

Ruth Mächler, Ralf T. Vogel, Eckhard Frick, Heike Rastetter, Christoph Schlemmer,
Rico Gutschmidt

Arts informed Research based on spiritual care research interviews. A workshop report — 229

Index — 251