

Contents

Roberto Hofmeister Pich and Stephan Conermann

Introduction — 1

Michael Zeuske

Slaves in Slavery Regimes of the Americas — 19

Paulo Cruz Terra

Analysing Brazil and Africa in a Global Labor History Perspective: Challenges and Possibilities — 61

Marçal de Menezes Paredes

The Contemporary History of Angola in Brazil: Pluralist Pasts within a Modern Nation — 77

Gustavo Cunha

Normative Reflections on Slavery, Post-Slavery and Recognition: A Reflection on the Legacy of Nineteenth-Century Slavery in Brazil — 93

Ana Azevedo Bezerra Felício

On Freedom: Comparative Readings of Hegel and Seneca in Postcolonial Discourse — 119

João Roberto Faria

A Brief Note on Theatre and Slavery in Brazil — 141

Fernanda Boarin Boechat

Survivor Narratives: Machado de Assis' and Conceição Evaristo's Writing-between-Worlds — 149

Vanessa Fernandes Dias

Cleverness, Slavery and Hierarchy: The Representation of Subaltern Characters in the Plays of Plautus and Ariano Suassuna — 163

Ana Carolina Torquato

The Advent of Scientific Racism and Racial Theories in Nineteenth-Century Brazilian Literature: Humans Portrayed as Animals — 185

Luis Rosenfield

Positivism and Evolutionism in Brazil: The Rise of the Generation of 1870 and Its Paradoxes — 205

Constant Kpao Sare

Postcolonial Literary Criticism of Transatlantic Slavery in Contemporary African and German-Language Literature: Between Trivialization, Memory Competition and the Responsibility of African Elites — 219

Notes on Contributors — 239

Index — 243