

Contents

Stefano Cassini, Tobias Daniels, Sandra Toffolo

Printing the Event. An Introduction — 1

Brian Richardson

News in Early Italian Printing. Strategies of Collaboration and Commercialization — 9

Paul Schweitzer-Martin

Before the Event. Printed Invitations in the Incunabula Period — 27

Stefano Cassini

The Voice of the Anchor. News and Events in Aldus Manutius's Prefaces — 51

Natale Vacalebre

Italian War Chronicles in Hernando Colón's Universal Library. The Case of Perosino della Rotonda — 65

Sandra Toffolo

The Material Culture of Mobility. A Pilgrim's Books between Italy, the Holy Land, and Switzerland — 89

Laura Incollingo

Ferdinand of Aragon and the Importance of Print — 105

Kristin Skottki

Boosting an Anti-Jewish Narrative with Humanist Means. Nikolaus Marschalk and Sternberg 1492 — 117

Saskia Limbach

Publications About the Poor Conrad Uprising (1514) in Context. Broad-sides, Letters, and Print Runs in Early Modern Germany — 143

Marco Francalanci

The French Conquest of Milan in Venetian and Milanese Prints — 159

Giacomo Mariani

The 1472 Comet and the Reactions of its Observers. Words, Manuscripts, Print — 173

Michele Lodone

Information, Propaganda, and Entertainment. Francesco Allegri in Renaissance Venice — 189

Edoardo Barbieri

Prato, 6 July 1484. The Miracle of Santa Maria delle Carceri as a Media
Event — 207

Contributors — 227