

CONTENTS

I. The Issue of Ethnogenesis and the Unity of the Slavs; Centripetal and Centrifugal Tendencies (Until the Rise of National Slavic States).

Imre Boba

- Przyczynek do dyskusji na temat śladów działalności świętego
Metodego w krajach nad Wisłą 11

II. The Social, Cultural and Scientific Relations of the Slavic Peoples in the Sixteenth to Nineteenth Centuries. The Rise of Slavic Studies.

Jaroslav Pelenski

- The Incorporation of the Ukrainian Lands of old Rus' into Crown Poland (1569). (Socio-Material Interest and Ideology –
A Reexamination). 19

Bickford O'Brien

- Russo-Polish Relations in the Second Half of the Seventeenth Century. 53

Edward C. Thaden

- Nationality Policy in the Western Borderlands of the Russian Empire, 1881-1914 69

Joseph F. Zacek

- Slovakia and the Czech National Revival: Introduction to a
Case Study 79

Philip Shashko

Greece and the Intellectual Bases of the Bulgarian Renaissance 91

III. The Significance of the National Liberation of the Slavs in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries for the Growth of Slavic Culture.

Gale Stokes

The European Sources of Nineteenth Century Thought and the National Liberation Movement in Serbia 125

Peter J. Georgeoff

Educational and Religious Rivalries in European Turkey
Before the Balkan Wars. 143

John J. Kulczycki

The School Strike of 1906-1907 in the Province of Poznań. . 171

Edward D. Wynot, Jr.

The Polish and Czech Struggles of Silesia and their Impact on the Unity and Consciousness of the Slavic World in the Years
1918-1921 189

Victor R. Greene

Slavic American Nationalism: Poles, Czechs and Slovaks,
1870-1918 197