

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis was written under the supervision of Prof. Dr. W.G.Klooster, University of Amsterdam. His encouragement was of great importance to me and his criticisms of earlier versions of this thesis led to many improvements. To Prof. Dr. H.Schultink, University of Utrecht, who was so kind to accept the function of co-referent, I am much indebted. His critical comments stimulated me to reformulate several parts of my thesis, and to come to a better exposition of my arguments.

I would also like to express my gratitude to my colleague Jaap van Marle with whom I had many lengthy and fruitful discussions on the subject matter of this thesis, and who also gave valuable comment on earlier drafts. I also thank my colleague Sies de Haan for his remarks on Chapter 1.

My colleagues of the Department of Dutch linguistics ("Vakgroep Nederlandse Taalkunde"), University of Amsterdam were so kind to grant me a sabbatical leave for half a year, which helped me considerably in finishing this study.

Finally I thank Mrs. Susan Kok for checking and correcting my English.
