

Contents

Amat al-Alim as-Suswa

Introduction	7
---------------------------	----------

Muhammad Shahir Hasan

The Development of Democracy in the Example of the People's General Congress	14
The National Movement and the Struggle for Liberty and Democracy	14
The Road of Democracy in the Example of the People's General Congress	17
The Political Activities of the People's General Congress	20
The Formation of Unions and Popular Societies	21

Dr. Ahmad Muhammad al-Kibsi

From the Holy Charter to the Permanent Constitution and the National Charter	27
Evaluating the Imamate from the Viewpoint of Political Participation	28
The Nationalist Movement and Its Demands	29
The Development of the New Political System	31
Genesis of the 1970 Permanent Constitution	34
The Genesis of the National Charter	36
Characteristics of the Permanent Constitution and the National Charter	39
Statement of Public Freedoms and Rights in the Permanent Constitution and the National Charter	42
Councils and Assemblies	47
The Shura Council of 1971	48
The People's Constituent Assembly	48
The Shura Council of 1988	49

Ahmad Muhammad al-Harbi

The Cooperative Movement:

a Basis for Democratic Development	59
Cooperative Work in Yemen's History	59
Yemeni Cooperative Work -
Genesis and Early Achievements	61
Cooperatives as Forms of Social Solidarity	63
Forms of Cooperation and the Employment of Democratic Means	65
The 26 September Revolution of 1962
and the New Structure of Cooperatives	66
Cooperative Democracy in Practice	68
Local Development Associations
and the Development of Cooperative Democracy	71
Democracy in the Daily Operations of the Cooperatives	73
Historic Significance of Democracy within the Cooperative
Movement and its Development within the Framework of the Local Councils for Cooperative Development	75

Dr. Sa'd Eddin Ibrahim

Winds of Democracy Blowing over Arab Soil	79
Between Autumn in Cyprus and Spring in Amman	79
Winds of Democracy in Arabia	81
The Problem of Despotism and Problems of Democracy	82

Dr. Ahmad Abdurahman Sharafuddin

The Basic Principles of Election Laws	88
The Principle of Universal Suffrage	89
The Principle of Free Elections	90
The Principle of Personal Representation	90
The Principle of Equal Participation	91

Ilham Muhammad Mane'

Algeria's Election Experiment	93
Concepts of Democracy	94
From a One-Party to a Multi-Party System	94
The National Liberation Front	95
The Islamic Salvation Front	96
The Front of Socialist Powers	97
The Pro-Democracy Movement	97
Political Reforms	97
Process and Results of the 1991 Parliamentary Elections ..	101
A Possible Interpretation of the Events	103

Muhammad Ja'far Qasim

A Critical View of the Draft Law for Elections	107
The Period Preceding the Establishment of the two Yemeni Republics	107
The Election Laws of the two Republics of Yemen (1962 - 1990)	109
The Election Law of 1992	111
The Principles of Competitive Elections.....	112
Organization of Election Campaigns by the Candidates.....	112
Equality in Campaigning	113
Organization of the Voters	114
Division of the Electorates	115
Organization of the Balloting	115
The Electoral System within the Draft Law	116
Neutrality of the Government and its Organizations during the Election Process	117
Decisions on Electoral Disputes (Appeals)	118

Ahmad Ali al-Wada'i

Contemplations on Unification and Democracy in Yemen	122
Questions to Our Newborn Democracy	122
Marriage between Unification and Democracy	123

Dr. Mansur Aziz az-Zindani

Third-World Democracies and the New World Order127

Challenges to our Young Democracy 128

Defending our Democracy from the Big Friends 128

Dr. Muhammad Ahmad as-Sa'idi

Safeguarding the Future of Democracy in Yemen.....131

Understanding democracy 132

No Democracy without Political Freedom 133

The Right Time for Democracy in Yemen 135

Guarantees for Democracy in Yemen 136

Fritz Piepenburg

The 1993 Parliamentary Elections in Yemen140

Setting the Stage 141

The Political Landscape after Unification 142

The Supreme Election Committee 147

Choosing the Constituencies 149

The Registration of Voters 151

Registration of Candidates 154

The Day of Balloting 156

Results 158

Accusations of Fraud and Deception 162

Amat al-Alim as-Suswa

Women and Democracy in Yemen167

Two Roads to Women's Emancipation in Yemen..... 167

The Position of the Yemeni Women in Today's Society 169

Women and the Parliamentary Elections of 1993 171

Women's Issues in the Party Programs 173

The Yemeni Women's Union 175

Conclusions 176