

Contents

Preface

List of contributors

J. Baart
Surface structure effects on the accentuation of verbs in read aloud text	1
Hans Bennis
A case of restructuring	9
Egon Berendsen
Final devoicing, assimilation, and subject clitics in Dutch	21
Kate Burridge
On the development of Dutch negation	31
C. Cremers and A. Sassen
On V1, GB and INFL	41
Hubert Cuyckens
Formal semantics: a lexical semantic approach	53
Frank van Gestel
The verbal specifier in Dutch	63
Casper de Groot
Typology of states of affairs	73
Liliane Haegeman
Die and dat in West-Flemish relative clauses	83
Teun Hoekstra
The distribution of sentential complements	93
Franciska de Jong
Numerals as determiners	105
Judith Junger
The problem of the passive in constructions of perception and cognition in modern Hebrew	115
Johan Kerstens
On the similarity of quantification and focus	125
Jan G. Kooij
Morphological alternations and phonological rules: the case of Dutch intervocalic fricatives	133
Thijs Laeven
Clivage dans la grammaire: la syntaxe de ce + être + qui/que	139
Machiel Limburg
The parameter preposition/postposition in word order typology	149
Sjaak de Mey
How to derive multiple questions?	159
Bob Rieger
Tense theory and the relation between futurity and non-finiteness in English	169
Tineke Scholten
Model verbs, L-tous and the Binding Theory	181
Johan Van der Auwera
Comrie on subjects	191