

Instructions to Authors

1. Only original papers that have not been published previously will be accepted.
Manuscripts may be submitted in English, German or Russian (in duplicate). The name of the institute (with the full address) from which the manuscript originates should be stated below the name(s) of the author(s). The authors are responsible for the content of their contributions.
2. Original papers should not consist of more than 20 typewritten pages (two-lined spacing), including references, tables and figures; short original communications may have a maximum of six typewritten pages.
3. Each paper should be preceded by a summary in English and also by an English translation of the title.
4. Latin names of species as well as passages to be printed in italics for greater emphasis should be denoted by a waving line. Please use only units and symbols of the SI-system.
5. Tables may be used to shorten the text or to make understanding easier. They should be numbered consecutively throughout and supplied with a brief heading. They should not appear in the text, but should be written on separate sheets.
6. The numbers and sizes of illustrations should be limited to the essential minimum, they should be numbered consecutively and be supplied on separate sheets.
Line drawings, including graphs and diagrams, should be drawn in black ink. Half-tone illustrations should be supplied as white glossy prints. Figure legends are to be typed in sequence on a separate sheet.
The name(s) of the author(s) should be written on the back of each sheet.
7. References listed at the end of the contribution should contain only works quoted in the text. They should be numbered in the order in which they are first mentioned in the text.
Please give surnames and initials of all authors, the name of the journal abbreviated according to "Chemical Abstracts — List of Periodicals", volume number, year of publication, issue number or month, first page number. Books are to be cited with full title, edition, volume number, page number, place of publication, publisher and year of publication.
8. Notes to the text may be given as footnotes on the same page.
9. 50 printed copies are free of charge.
Additional reprints may be ordered (at full cost).
10. The author will receive two galley proofs for correction. They are to be returned to the managing editor (Permoserstr. 15, Leipzig, 7050 DDR, Dr. L. Dimter) as soon as possible.
