

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
-------------------------------	---

Typologies and Forms

Practices of Comparing

A New Research Agenda Between Typological and Historical Approaches Angelika Epple/Walter Erhart	11
--	----

Preliminary Typology of Comparative Utterances

A Tree and Some Binaries Kirill Postoutenko	39
---	----

Incomparability

A Tentative Guide for the Perplexed Hartmut von Sass	87
--	----

Odysseus, Blackbirds, and Rain Barrels

Literature as a Comparative Practice Walter Erhart	111
--	-----

Where Do Rankings Come From?

A Historical-Sociological Perspective on the History of Modern Rankings Leopold Ringel/Tobias Werron	137
--	-----

Histories

The Weight of Comparing in Medieval England

David Gary Shaw	173
------------------------------	-----

The Shifting Grounds of Comparison in the French Renaissance
The Case of Louis Le Roy
Andrea Frisch	199
Comparison and East-West Encounter
The Seventeenth and the Eighteenth Centuries
Zhang Longxi	213
Japan as the Absolute 'Other'
Genealogy and Variations of a Topos
Emmanuel Lozerand	229
"Goût de Comparaison"
Practices of Comparative Viewing in Eighteenth-Century Connoisseurship
Joris Corin Heyder	257
Inventing White Beauty and Fighting Black Slavery
How Blumenbach, Humboldt, and Arango y Parreño Contributed to Cuban Race Comparisons in the Long Nineteenth Century
Angelika Epple	295
The Politicisation of Comparisons
The East-West Dispute over Military Force Comparisons in the Cold War
Thomas Müller	329
Genealogies of Modernism
Curatorial Practices of Comparing in the Exhibitions Cubism and Abstract Art and documenta I
Britta Hochkirchen	349
Comparing in the Digital Age
The Transformation of Practices
Anna Neubert/Silke Schwandt	377
Authors and Editors	401