

Contents

The European Christian Right: An Overview

Gionathan Lo Mascolo and Kristina Stoeckl 11

“Gender Ideology” Battles in the European Bubble

Neil Datta and David Paternotte 43

The Russian Christian Right

Kristina Stoeckl 61

The Diverse Catholic Right in Poland

Anja Hennig 75

Religion and Authoritarian Legitimacy

The Hungarian Pentecostal Faith Church

Armin Langer, Zoltán Ádám, and András Bozóki 105

The Christian Right in Europe: Austria

Katharina Limacher, Astrid Mattes, and Barbara Urbanic 129

Is There a Christian Right in Belarus?

Regina Elsner 147

From Catholic Church to Religious–Political Movements

Religious Populism’s Coming of Age in Croatia

Zoran Grozdanov and Nebojša Zelič 159

The Conservative (Catholic) Christian Right in Central Europe and the Illiberal Backlash
The Czech Republic and Slovakia in Comparative Perspective
Marián Sekerák and Přemysl Rosůlek	171
Catholics and the Far Right in France
A Breach in the Dam
Anne Guillard and Tobias Cremer	199
The Christian Right in Germany
Sonja Angelika Strube	213
The Political and Religious Landscape of Greece
Christian, Far Right, but Not Christian Far Right
George Kordas	231
Tracking the Political Scope of Ultraconservative Christian-Right Movements in Italy
Strategies, Mobilizations, and Narratives
Massimo Prearo and Alessio Scopelliti	251
The Christian Right in Contemporary Lithuania
Key Actors and Their Agendas
Evelina Juchnevičiūtė, Milda Ališauskienė, and Gintarė Pocė	265
Discerning Christian anti-liberalism from the far-right in the Netherlands
Marietta van der Tol	279
The Christian Right in Norway
Hans Morten Haugen	293
Christian Mobilization in Portugal in the 21st Century
Riccardo Marchi	307
Religious Actors and Their Political Agenda in Romania
From the Family Referendum to the Rise of the AUR
Ana Raluca Alecu	321

Indirect Path to Power
The Far-Right Catholic Agenda in Spain
José Barrera-Blanco, Mónica Cornejo-Valle, and J. Ignacio Pichardo 337

Ukraine’s Far-Right Movements and Their Connections to the Religious World
Denys Brylov, Tetiana Kalenychenko, and Pavlo Smytsnyuk 351

The Christian Right in the UK
Andrea C. Hatcher..... 365

List of Authors 375

