

Short Table of Contents

Foreword	v
----------	---

List of Authors	vii
-----------------	-----

Introduction: Market Regulation, Judicial Cooperation and Collective Redress	1
Lukasz Gorywoda, Nikitas Hatzimihail and Arnaud Nuyts

A. The Private International Law of Collective Redress

Collective Redress and the Jurisdictional Model of the Brussels I Regulation	59
Burkhard Hess

The Consolidation of Collective Claims Under Brussels I	69
Arnaud Nuyts

Recognition, Enforcement and Collective Judgments	85
Richard Fentiman

European Class Actions and Applicable Law	111
Ralf Michaels

B. New Perspectives on Collective Redress

Collective Redress and Competition Policy	145
Lia Athanassiou

The Emerging EU Legal Regime for Collective Redress: Institutional Dimension and Its Main Features	173
Lukasz Gorywoda

The Class Action Experience in Israel and the Value of Having a Representative with a Personal Claim Michael M. Karayanni	189
--	-----

Class Arbitration in Europe? Luca G. Radicati di Brozolo	209
--	-----

C. Case Studies on Cross-Border Collective Redress

Private International Law and Collective Redress – The case of Antitrust damage claims Michael Hellner	223
---	-----

Compensatory Consumer Collective Redress and the Brussels I Regulation (Recast) Cristina González Beilfuss and Beatriz Añoveros Terradas	241
---	-----

Rethinking Collective Redress, Consumer Protection and Brussels I Regulation Małgorzata Posnow-Wurm	259
--	-----

Transnational Securities Fraud Class Actions: Looking Towards Europe? Natalia A. Kapetanaki	277
--	-----

Rome II and the Law of Financial Markets: The Case of Damage Caused by the Breach of Disclosure Sabine Corneloup	291
---	-----

Collective Redress and Global Governance (Concluding Remarks) Nikitas E. Hatzimihail	315
---	-----