

Table of Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction
From Metaphor toward Historical Epoch	1
Chapter One
Meanings of the Revival I: National and Cultural	11
The National Interpretation	11
Concepts of the (Bulgarian) Nation	14
Nationalism and Romanticism	24
The National and the Spiritual (Cultural) Meanings	27
The Analogy with the Renaissance	29
The Bulgarian Revival and the Enlightenment	32
Analogies with the Reformation	39
The Bulgarian Revival and European Development	41
Modernity and Modernization	46
Chapter Two
Meanings of the Revival II: Economic and Social	57
The Transition from Feudalism to Capitalism	58
Capitalism during the Revival	66
Ottoman Feudalism	73
The Social (Bourgeois) Revolution and the Agrarian Thesis	79
The Economic and the National–Spiritual Interpretation	85
Excursus on Periodization	99
Chapter Three
Classes and Class Struggles	109
The Urban “Estate” and Social Struggles in Older Historiography	109

Bourgeoisie and Notables in Earlier Marxist Controversies	112
Toward Rehabilitation	119
The Peasants	130
The Intelligentsia	131
The Class Struggles between the Social and National	134
Vulgar Marxist Sociologism and Its Abandoning	138
 Chapter Four
Paths of the Revival and National Heroes	151
Paisii as a Problem	151
Evolutionists and Revolutionaries	162
The Hierarchy of National Heroes: Rakovski, Karavelov, Levski, Botev. Reappraisals and Reshuffling	176
 Chapter Five
The April Uprising, the Russo-Turkish Liberation War, and the Revolution	197
The April Uprising and the Russo-Turkish War	197
The Revolution	210
Revisions and Reappraisal	218
 Chapter Six
The Continuing Revival: Symbolic Struggles and Images	227
Rightist Visions of the Bulgarian Revival	228
The Democratic Image	235
The Battle of the Communists for the Legacy of the Revival	238
 Epilogue
The Bulgarian Revival as a National Myth	249
 Glossary	255
Transliteration	257
Bibliography	259
Index	283