

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	7
Introduction	9
Medieval Thought and Shapeshifting
Santiago Barreiro and Luciana Cordo Russo
1. Wundor wearð on wege ‘a wonder happened on the way’	21
Shifting shapes and meanings in Old English Riddles
Rafał Borystowski
2. The Big Black Cats of Vatnsdalr and Other Trolls	43
Talking about shapeshifting in medieval Iceland
Ármann Jakobsson
3. The Hoard Makes the Dragon	53
Fáfnir as a Shapeshifter
Santiago Barreiro
4. Eigi í mannligu eðli	83
Shape, Monstrosity and Berserkism in the Íslendingasögur
Rebecca Merkelbach
5. The Cursed and the Committed	107
A Study in Literary Representations of ‘Involuntary’ Shapeshifting in Early Medieval Irish and Old Norse Narrative Traditions
Camilla With Pedersen
6. Unde sunt aues istae?	127
Notes on Bird-Shapeshifting, Bird Messengers, and Early Medieval Hagiography
Santiago Disalvo
7. Sin, Punishment, and Magic	155
Changing Form in Medieval Welsh Literature
Luciana Cordo Russo
Index	185

