

Table of Contents

Spelling, Dates, and Other Conventions	7
List of Common Abbreviations	9
Introduction: A New History of Medieval Scandinavia	11
Andrea Maraschi, Viktória Gyönki

Part I Food Production: Natural and Supernatural Strategies.

1. Magic, Miracles, and Rituals to Fight Famine in Old Norse Literature	31
Andrea Maraschi
2. Divine Intervention in the Preparation of Food and Drink in Old Norse Culture	53
Karoline Kjesrud
3. The Rise and Extent of Commercial Stockfish Production and Trade in Medieval North-Norwegian Coastal Society	75
Stefan Figenschow

Part II Food Trade, Distribution, and Commercial Activities

4. Food and Exclusion: Beer, Chicken, and Social Mobility in the Saga World	99
Marion Poilvez
5. What Did the Norwegians Drink?	117
Erik Opsahl
6. Stockfish Distribution: Getting Stockfish to the Consumer	131
Magne Njåstad

7. The Theft of Food in Thirteenth-Century Norway and Iceland	145
Helen F. Leslie-Jacobsen

Part III Food Spaces, Consumption, and Feasting

8. The Semiotics of Hanging Around in the Kitchen in Late Sagas and Rímur	167
Philip Lavender
9. Consumption and Intoxication in an Old Norse Legendary Saga	191
Andrew McGillivray
10. Conflicts Regarding Hospitality in Old Norse Sources	207
Viktória Gyönki
11. The Practice of Feasting in Medieval Iceland	223
Martina Ceolin
Index of names and texts	241
Index of places	249