

Table of Contents

List of illustrations	9
Acknowledgements	13
Note on names	15
Dramatis personae	17
Genealogical charts	29
Introduction: Women living with power	31
Opportunities	35
Growing interest	37
Sources and the challenge of invisibility	42

Outsiders

1. Rituals of royal compassion	47
Who and when	51
Institutionalisation	53
The quality of compassion	56
2. Why be at court? The example of the Königsmarcks	59

Insiders

3. All the Queen's women	77
The creation of the Swedish court in the sixteenth century	79
The women in service	84
The recruitment process	87
Pay and perquisites	93
Marriage	96
The appeal of the court	101

4. Noblewomen crossing borders	103
Change over time	106
Princely women visiting and residing in Sweden	109
Swedish noblewomen in service abroad	111
Clean break or gradual erosion?	114
From melting pot to enclave	120
5. Servants of power	121
Everyday power – and more	122
Maids of Honour as power brokers	124
Everyday power – and high politics	127
Power struggles on several levels	131
Emerentia Düben	135
Juliana Schierberg	138
Anna Catharina Bärfelt	141
Measures of success	146
6. Left behind	149
Reputational damage	152
Beata Sophia Horn, trapped at court	156
Ageing and unmarried	167
7. Filth among the apples: Hierarchy and gender at court	169
A Swedish Table of Ranks	171
Formal hierarchies	172
Royal decisiveness	174
Increasing formality	177
Marks of status	182
Negotiating the hierarchy	186
8. A small circle with wide horizons	189
Living under surveillance	191
Socialised into a group	193
Widening interests and attitudes	197
Changes in appearance	201
The best school in the world	203
9. Fumbling for power: Being a royal mistress	207
A golden age of adultery	209
A passing fancy	211

An emotional anchor	212
A lesser sort of marriage	213
The extraordinary success of Karin Månsdotter	215
Pimped to a king	216
The role of a royal mistress	224

Royals

10. The performance of a lifetime: Being Queen Consort	229
Being foreign	231
Being sociable	235
Being self-assured	239
Being a success	241
11. The winding road: Royal marriage negotiations	243
A queen's worth	244
How to pick a marriage partner	247
Successful failures	250
12. The broken mirror: Gender differences in the system of royal apartments	253
Mirroring apartments	255
Royal apartments outside Stockholm	258
Renovations	259
A mirror cracked	262
In-built gender	263
13. Death and beyond	265
A Swedish Artemisia manquée	268
Commemorating a dynasty	280
Dynastic memory	284
14. The court as substitute family	287
The Princess, her sister and the need for trust	290
A court of her own	293
Court rather than family	297
A long-lost sister	300
The entertaining princess	304

15. Epilogue	307
Glossary	311
Court positions	311
Abbreviations	312
Coinage	312
The calendar	312
Bibliography	313
Manuscript sources	313
Published sources	315
Index	333