

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction: Making Neoliberalism Visible	11
1. German Cinema and the Neoliberal Turn: The End of the National-Cultural Film Project	43
2. Producing German Cinema for the World: Global Blockbusters from Location Germany	77
3. From Everyday Life to the Crisis Ordinary: Films of Ordinary Life and the Resonance of DEFA	129
4. Future Feminism: Political Filmmaking and the Resonance of the West German Feminist Film Movement	157
5. The Failing Family: Changing Constellations of Gender, Intimacy, and Genre	193
6. Refiguring National Cinema in Films about Labour, Money, and Debt	243
Conclusion: German Cinema in the Age of Neoliberalism	291
Bibliography	295
Index	311

