

Table of Contents

1. Building Dynasties, Shaping States: Dynasty and State Formation in Early Modern Europe Liesbeth Geevers and Harald Gustafsson	7
2. Divine Right of Dynasty: Deposing the God-Given Monarch in Protestant Europe Cathleen Sarti	25
3. Presence Makes the Heart Grow Fonder: Proximity and the Creation of Dynasty Fabian Persson	45
4. The Austrian Nephews: The Offspring of Maximilian II and Maria of Austria at the Service of the Spanish King Rubén González Cuerva	65
5. Sixteen Corpses: The First Reburials in the Escorial in 1586 and the Dynastic Dynamics that Made Them Happen Liesbeth Geevers	85
6. An Elected Dynasty of Sweden? Blood, Charisma and Representative Monarchy Mats Hallenberg	109
7. Narrowing Dynastic Rule: Models of Governance, Social Conflict and the Hobbesian Bargain in Early Modern Sweden (1560–1718) Joakim Scherp	135
8. The Nassaus and State Formation in Pre-Modern Germany Jasper van der Steen	165
9. Dynastic Marriage Spheres in Early Modern Europe: A Comparison of the Danish Oldenburgs and Three Houses of the Empire Harald Gustafsson	187

10. The Frustrations of Being the Spare: Second Sons in the French Monarchy and their Increasingly Limited Roles in Politics and Society, 1560s–1780s Jonathan Spangler	217
11. Danish Dynastic Histories in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries: Claus Christoffersen Lyschander, Vitus Bering, Ludvig Holberg and Hans Peter Anchersen Sebastian Olden-Jørgensen	251
Bibliography	269
Index	297