

List of Illustrations, Figures, and Tables

Map 1	The County of Flanders and Duchy of Brabant in the fifteenth century © Hannah Serneels	25
Map 2	Dioceses of Tournai, Cambrai, and Liège in the fifteenth century © Hannah Serneels	26
Map 3	The districts of Vier Ambachten, Oudburg, Land van Waas, and the city of Ghent in the late medieval quarter of Ghent © Hannah Serneels	26
Figure 1	Abductees and their life cycle stages in the bailiff's accounts and sentence books (15th c.)	94
Figure 2	The role of 625 perpetrators involved in 308 abduction cases included in the sentence books and bailiff's accounts of Antwerp, Leuven, and Ghent (city and districts)	101
Figure 3	Sentences and compositions for abductors in the bailiff's accounts and sentence books of Antwerp, Leuven and the city (C) and districts (Q) of Ghent (15th c.)	167
Figure 4	Number of abductions in the bailiff's accounts and sentence book of Antwerp (15th c.)	178
Figure 5	Number of abductions in registers of the aldermen and bailiff of Ghent (sentence book, bailiff's accounts, and registers of de Keure, 15th c.)	179
Figure 6	Number of abductions in the bailiff's accounts and sentence book of Leuven (15th c.)	180
Table 1	Penalties for abductors, accomplices, and abductees according to ducal, comital, and urban legal ordinances against abduction in the late medieval Low Countries	56
Table 2	Abduction labels in the bailiff's accounts and sentence books (15th c.)	139
Table 3	Abduction cases in the registers of the Brussels diocesan court (1448–1459), the Cambrai diocesan court (1438–1454), and the Liège diocesan court (1434–1435)	190

