

Table of Contents

List of Illustrations, Figures, and Tables	7
Acknowledgments	9
Introduction	11
Abduction, marriage, and consent	14
Abduction marriage for all	22
Sources	27
Structure	33
Works cited	34
1. Perks and Perils of Being an Heiress	43
Reputation, property, and ages of consent	45
From excommunication to decapitation	54
Age and consent as legal parameters	61
Increasing criminalization: Ghent (1191–1438)	63
Conclusion	74
Works cited	76
2. Abduction's Who, How, and Why	83
The impossible marriage	85
A gendered offense?	97
A family affair	106
Conclusion	114
Works cited	115
3. Consent In and Out of the Courtroom	121
Communicating consent and coercion	123
Judging consent and coercion	136
Explaining and understanding consent and coercion	139
Life after abduction	150
Conclusion	156
Works cited	158
4. What Authorities Did to Help	163
Secular authorities: between repression and reconciliation	166

Two- and three-party cases before the consistory courts	189
Conclusion	201
Works cited	202
Conclusion	209
Works cited	216
Abbreviations	219
Bibliography	221
Index	247