

Table of Contents

Foreword	9
1. The Cultural Security of Ethnic Groups in Contemporary China and Mongolia Jarmila Ptáčková and Ondřej Klimeš	13
2. Cultural Security in the People's Republic of China: Between Party-State Invocation and Academic Theorization Mohammed Alsudairi	35
3. Taking Sides: Differences in How the People's Republic of China Securitizes Uyghur and Hui Muslims Hacer Z. Gonul and Julius M. Rogenhofer	73
4. Muslims with Chinese Characteristics: The Sinicization of Ningxia after 2017 Jarmila Ptáčková	101
5. Big Bad Wolf: Masculinity and Heroes in Modern Uyghur Literature Michal Zelcer-Lavid	121
6. Language Ideologies and Cultural Security: The Status and Meanings of the Uyghur Language Giulia Cabras	149
7. Local Cultural Inclusion and Partnership Assistance to Tibet: A Case Study on Lunang Township's Tourism Development Project Yang Minghong and Zeng Benxiang	177
8. Adaptation of the Offering to the Mountain Deity among the Qiang in Northwest Sichuan: Cultural Security on Multiple Levels Bian Simei	203
9. Against the Flattening of Ridges and Ravines: (Dis)locating Cultural Security through Writing with the Yi of Southwest China Jan Karlach	227

10. Hong Kong and Scalable Cultural Security	251
Gabriel Thorne
11. Cultural Survival and National Identity in Contemporary Mongolia	271
Mei-hua Lan
Index	293