Jsem rád, že ze spolupráce National Security Archive ve Washingtonu a české nadace Pražské jaro 1968 vzešel tento obsáhlý sborník dokumentů, který, doufám, přiblíží americkému čtenáři dramatické události, které před třemi desítkami let tehdejší Československo prožívalo.*

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Václav Havel". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

* I am happy that the cooperation between the National Security Archive in Washington and the Czech foundation, Prague Spring 1968, has resulted in this voluminous collection of documents, which, I hope, will lead American readers to a closer understanding of the dramatic events that the then Czechoslovakia lived through three decades ago.
