

Contents

Foreword	ix
Preface and Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
1. 1899: Hong Kong in the Age of Imperialism	5
2. Riots, Disturbances, Insurrection, and War: Armed Opposition to the Imperial Ideal	23
3. July 1898–March 1899: The Road to War	39
4. April 1899: The War	61
5. Blake and Lockhart: Conflicts and Casualties	103
6. The Campaign: An Assessment	149
7. The Villagers: Leaders and Led	169
8. The Aftermath of the War	185
Appendices
Appendix 1 Proclamation of the Governor, 7–9 April 1899	191
Appendix 2 The Speech by the Governor, Sir Henry Blake, to the elders of the villages of the Kowloon area, on 17 April 1899	194
Appendix 3 Report on the Fighting 15–18 April: Capt. Berger, as taken from Stewart Lockhart's Diary	196
Appendix 4 Report on Operations: C. S. Simmonds, Capt. Royal Artillery	203
Appendix 5 The Spirit Tablet Inscription in the Tin Hau Temple, Tai Shue Ha	205
Appendix 6 The Six-Day War and Kam Tin	206
Appendix 7 The Biography of Man Tsam-chuen	208
Appendix 8 The Biography of Ng Shing-chi	210
Notes	215
Index	261

Maps

Map 1	Places Taking Part in the Insurrection, or mentioned in the text	4
Map 2	The Fighting on 15–17 April	66
Map 3	The Battle of Mui Shue Hang	68
Map 4	The Battle of Lam Tsuen Gap	76
Map 5	The Battle of Shek Tau Wai	88
Map 6	British Troop Movements, 18–19 April	94

Plates

Plate 1	British Officers of the Hongkong Regiment, 1897
Plate 2	British Officers of the Hongkong Regiment, 1902
Plate 3	Viceroy Commissioned Officers of the Hongkong Regiment, 1902
Plate 4	The Tai Po Area
Plate 5	The Flag-Raising Ceremony at Tai Po, 16 April 1899
Plate 6	The Lam Tsuen Gap
Plate 7	The Sheung Tsuen/Shek Tau Wai Area
Plate 8	Proclamation issued by Sir Henry Blake on 9 April 1899
Plate 9	Sir Henry Blake K.C.M.G., Governor of Hong Kong 1898–1904 and the Viceroy of the Double Kwang, Tan Chung-lin
Plate 10	James Stewart Lockhart, C.M.G., Colonial Secretary, Hong Kong, 1895–1902
Plate 11	The Tat Tak Kung Soh, Ping Shan
Plate 12	The Tin Hau Temple, Tai Shue Ha
Plate 13	The Hero Shrine in the Yau Lun Tong, Kam Tin
Plate 14	The Communal Grave at the Miu Kok Yuen Nunnery, Sha Po
Plate 15	Tang Fong-hing, one of the leaders of the insurrection, shortly after 1899
Plate 16	Ng Shing-chi, one of the leaders of the insurrection, shortly before his death in 1938
Plate 17	Two Village Trained-Band Fighters from the Hong Kong area