

Acknowledgments

We would like to thank the following organizations for permissions to reprint maps and figures that first appeared in their publications.

A. Hiddush: For Religious Freedom and Equality, Rabbi Uri Regev, CEO. Six figures from the 2021 Israel Religion and State Index, Report 13, abridged version, September 2021, <https://rrfei.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/10/abridged.pdf>:

- “Support for Religious Freedom and Separation of Religion and State (by Level of Religiosity),” p. 5
- “The Public’s Positions on Bringing the Ultra-Orthodox Parties into the Coalition,” p. 9
- “Support for Recognition of All Forms of Marriage,” p. 17
- “Support Allowing Public Transportation on Shabbat at Discretion of Local Authorities,” p. 24
- “The Public’s Position on the Budget for Yeshivas,” p. 29
- “Public Positions on Drafting Yeshiva Students,” p. 32

B. The Palestinian Academic Society for the Study of International Affairs, Dr. Mahdi Abdul Hadi, Chairman. Four maps from their online library (<http://www.passia.org/maps/38>):

- Palestine Under the British Mandate (<http://www.passia.org/maps/view/6>)
- “The Peel Commission Partition Recommendation, 1937” (<http://www.passia.org/maps/view/8>)

- “The United Nations Partition Recommendation, 1947—the 1948 War and the 1949 Armistice Lines” (<http://www.passia.org/maps/view/15>)
- “Israeli Borders before and after the 1967 War” (<http://www.passia.org/maps/view/20>)

C. Peace Now, Mauricio Lapchik, Director of External Relations. Four maps from Eyes on the Ground in East Jerusalem: Hagit Ofra Brings You the Human Stories behind the Headlines, <https://settlementwatcheastjerusalem.wordpress.com/maps/>.