

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Timeline	xi
Chapter 1 Dr. Chapin and the Niagara Frontier	1
Chapter 2 Opportunities on a Knoll Overlooking Lake Erie	11
Chapter 3 Religion, Home, and Practice in the Wilderness	23
Chapter 4 An Unconventional Federalist	31
Chapter 5 Practicing Medicine Before Science	41
Chapter 6 Contemporaries, Competition, and Sectarian Chaos	57
Chapter 7 Native Americans and Medicine	67
Chapter 8 Family, Village, and Community in Buffalo's First Decade	75
Chapter 9 Native Americans and the Prelude to War, 1810–1812	83
Chapter 10 How to Start a War: 1812	91
Chapter 11 Chapin Enters the Fight	101

Chapter 12	The Realities of Making War	107
Chapter 13	Forty Thieves at War	113
Chapter 14	Civilians, Fodder, and War	121
Chapter 15	Buffalo Burns	129
Chapter 16	In the Aftermath of War, Buffalo Comes of Age	139
Chapter 17	Chapin Establishes a County Medical Society, Twice	153
Chapter 18	An Agricultural Society and a Buffalo Boom	167
Chapter 19	Cholera, 1832	179
Chapter 20	The Patriot Wars, Dr. Chapin's Last Stand	187
Chapter 21	The Legacy of Cyrenius Chapin	199
	Acknowledgments	209
	Bibliography	211
	Index	223
	About the Author	229