

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
------------------------	-----

Introduction:	Walking Between the Lines Marilisa Jiménez García and Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez	1
Opening Poem:	My Curriculum Alissa Alina Flores	19

SECTION 1: YOUTH AS INTELLECTUALS AND STORYTELLERS

Chapter 1	Out of Empire's Shadow: Confronting US Imperialism through Randy Ribay's The Patron Saints of Nothing Lara Saguisag	23
Chapter 2	Becoming a Girl: Girlhood, Child Marriage, and Widowhood in Kashmira Sheth's Keeping Corner Blessy Sharon Samjose	41
Chapter 3	"Let Me Tell You a Story": Healing, Environmental Justice, and Resistance in Mark Oshiro's Each of Us a Desert Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez	59

SECTION 2: INTERSECTIONALITY AND COUNTERNARRATIVES

Chapter 4	Representations of Asian American Girlhood in Contemporary Young Adult Literature Jung E. Kim	77
-----------	--	----

Chapter 5	In the Spirit: Womanist Notions of Blackness, Indigeneity, Gender, and Dis/ability in Children's Literature Reanae McNeal	99
Chapter 6	The Power of Story, Images, and Policy in Native Studies: An Interview with Traci Sorell and Alia Jones Marilisa Jiménez García and Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez	119
SECTION 3: COMMUNITY FRAMEWORKS
Chapter 7	African American Children's Literature: The First 100 Years (reprint) Violet J. Harris	135
Chapter 8	Critical Indigenous Literacies: Selecting and Using Children's Books about Indigenous Peoples (reprint) Debbie Reese	153
Chapter 9	The Mirror, the Matrix, the Movement: Intellectual Legacies of the Council on Interracial Books for Children Marilisa Jiménez García	161
Coda:	Reflections on Struggle, Freedom, and Storytelling Marilisa Jiménez García and Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez	179
	List of Contributors	187
	Index	191