

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Chapter 1
Racing to (Dis)Own Whistleblowers and Protests: Theorizing Amongness in the Shared Rhetorical Spaces of Democratic Agency	1
Joshua Guitar and Alan Chu
Chapter 2
Wrangling the Ructions: Major Ian Fishback, Ph.D. and His Whistleblowing Campaign	33
Rebekah L. Fox and Ann E. Burnette
Chapter 3
Shooting Bullets and Frames per Second: Recording the Police as Whistleblowing	61
David R. Dewberry
Chapter 4
Shifting Power to Seek Change: Kategoria as a Form of Rhetorical Leadership	83
Marnie Lawler McDonough
Chapter 5
Whistleblower Rhetoric: Mistreatment of Migrant Children in US Detention Facilities	103
Svilen Trifonov
Chapter 6
“This Is an Information War”: Mediated and Rhetorical Contestations over the War in Northern Ethiopia	127
Azeb Nishan Madebo

Chapter 7
“Read, Write, Execute”: Edward Snowden and the New History of the Whistleblower	153
Matthew Steven Bruen
Chapter 8
From Solidarity to Suspicion: The Case of Javier Esqueda	173
Sarah Walker-Riftkin
Chapter 9
Should Political Appointees Have Whistleblower Protection? The Case of Kevin Chmielewski	191
Chrys Egan and John Patrick Murphy
Chapter 10
Breaking the Blue: Whistleblowing on Those Tasked to Protect and Serve	213
Colin H. Campbell
Chapter 11
Tragic Responses to Whistleblowing a Tragedy: A Burkean Analysis of the Flint Water Crisis	235
Craig M. Hennigan
Chapter 12
See Someone, Say Someone: Doxing Vision as Usurping the Rhetoric of Whistleblowing	259
Kellie Marin
Chapter 13
Ninja Girl, Blow the Whistle and Poison Arrows!: An Epideictic Function of Entertainment Film and Its Applications for Whistleblowing	281
Noriaki Tajima and Satoru Aonuma
List of Contributors	303
Index	309