

Contents

Introduction: Stardust, Ephemera, and Surrogates for Divinities Helena Goscilo	1
1. Eugeniusz Bodo: The Star Who Stole the Show Beth Holmgren	33
2. The Bondarchuk Dynasty: Two Generations of Imperial(ist) State-Sponsored Celebrities Alexander Prokhorov and Elena Prokhorova	57
3. Aňa Geislerová: An Evolved Interwar Celebrity for the Post-Totalitarian Era Nicholas Hudac	82
4. Straddling Multiple Spheres: Liudmila Gurchenko Tetyana Dovbnya	101
5. Agnieszka Holland's Starburst Career: From Persona Non Grata to International Celebrity on Multiple Fronts Elżbieta Ostrowska	125
6. Krystyna Janda: My Way Ronald Meyer	156
7. Renata Litvinova's (Anti-)Imperial Sublime Olga Mukhortova	187
8. Small-Scale Hedonism as Rebellion: Jiří Menzel's Irresistible Union of Sex and Laughter Herbert Eagle	207
9. Pretty and Macho: The Eroticized Physicality of Daniel Olbrychski Helena Goscilo	237
10. Liubov' Orlova: Dialectic of Knowledge and Mystery Rimgaila Salys	270
11. Volodymyr Zelensky: From Actor to Captain Ukraine Anastasia Gordienko	294
Index	325

