

China Finance and Economic Review

Volume 4 Number 1

Spring 2015

The choice of China's macro-economic policies for the "new normal"
Gao Peiyong, Wang Hongju	3
Thoughts on a comprehensive tax reform
Li Wanfu	27
Intergovernmental fiscal relations: a case for division of tax power
Ly Bingyang	40
The size and structure of China's full-covered fiscal expenditure
Wang Dehua	64
On reform measures to strengthen the foundations for future economic growth in China
Duan Bingde, Gao Shiji	72
Testing the applicability of Wagner's Law in China based on reconstruction of government expenditure indicators
Song Xuguang, Peng Gang, Mao Yunyun & Zhao Nan	87
The impacts of China's economic policies on Sino-African agricultural trade: evidence from the gravity model analysis
Yang Jun, Liu Hongbo & Yang Wenqian	101
Two decades of tax-sharing system reform in China: a comparative study
Bai Yanfeng, Wang Kai	116