

6th International Symposium on Bioorganic Chemistry (ISBOC-6),
12–15 May 2002, Toronto, Canada

Toronto, Canada M5S 3H6; E-mail: rkluger@
chem.utoronto.ca; Tel. and Fax: +1 416 978 3582.

This symposium continues a tradition of IUPAC-sponsored symposia on bioorganic chemistry; the most recent ones were held this past January in Pune, India (ISBOC-5) and in 1997 in Biarritz, France (ISBOC-4). These symposia focus on advancement of international collaboration and communication at the interface of organic chemistry with biological and medicinal science. ISBOC-6 will feature sessions on bioorganic mechanisms: key problems for the 21st century, bioorganic chemistry and discovery of new therapeutics, and biomimetic processes and synthesis—impact of automation. Approximately 1 000 scientific participants are expected to attend ISBOC-6.
