Directions for Authors

Papers for publications may be submitted in English, German, or French in two typewritten (double spaced) copies. They should not exceed 20 typed pages. Formulas must be typewritten. A complete list of all handwritten symbols with indications for the printer should be enclosed. Formulas should be numbered on the left-hand side of the line. References to the literature should be arranged in alphabetical order, typed with double spacing. Abbreviations of journals names should follow Mathematical Reviews. Titles in Russian should be in Latin transcription. The paper should conclude with indication of the author's place of employment and his address. Please include AMS 1991 Mathematics Subject Classification of your work. In each issue, the papers are ordered according to the subject order of Mathematical Reviews. The publisher encourages submission of manuscripts written in TeX, AMS-TeX or LATeX. After their papers are accepted for publication, the authors should send discs (preferably PC). Authors receive 25 reprints of their articles.
