Journal of China Computer-Assisted Language Learning, initiated by Beijing Foreign Studies University, is the official journal of ChinaCALL, an affiliate of China Association for Comparative Studies of English and Chinese. The journal seeks to provide an international platform for exchanging ideas, innovations and findings regarding computer-assisted language learning. Research articles and critical reviews are especially welcome in related promising fields. The journal is peer-reviewed, published in English, open-access and issued twice a year.

All manuscript submissions will undergo a double-blind, peer review. Final decision regarding acceptance/revision/rejection will be based on the reviews received from at least two independent, anonymous expert referees.
