AIMS AND SCOPE

The aim of JPEM is to diffuse speedily new medical information by publishing clinical investigations in pediatric endocrinology and basic research with relevance to clinical pediatric endocrinology and metabolism from all over the world. Although other journals publish such papers, JPEM is the only international journal dedicated exclusively to endocrinology in the neonatal, pediatric and adolescent age groups. JPEM is a high quality journal dedicated to pediatric endocrinology in its broadest sense, which is needed at this time of rapid expansion of the field of endocrinology. JPEM includes the following sections: reviews, original research, patient reports, short communications, letters to the editor (including comments on published papers), book reviews, meetings calendar, noticeboard for pediatric societies. JPEM publishes supplements of proceedings and abstracts of pediatric endocrinology and diabetes society meetings.

Manuscripts should be submitted to one of the editors:

TRANSFER OF AUTHOR

COPYRIGHT

Please provide a release of copyright addressed to Freund Publishing House Ltd., which should include the title of the article, date and must be signed by all the authors.

ETHICS OF INVESTIGATION

Authors should identify whether ethical standards were used in their research; for example whether informed consent was obtained, etc., when applicable. Such a manuscript should include the notation that the study was approved by the institutional committee on human research.

MANUSCRIPTS

Must be in English. Submit an original (and three copies) typewritten on one side of 8½ x 11 inch (22 x 28 cm) heavy-duty white bond paper, sequentially numbered, double-spaced (including references, tables, legends and footnotes). Abstract, references, tables, and legends should each begin on a new page. A PC-diskette will be requested on acceptance of your manuscript. All accepted manuscripts are subjected to editing.

TITLE PAGE

Should include authors' names, and departmental and institutional affiliations of each author. Designate one author as the correspondent, and provide address, business and home telephone numbers, fax number, and e-mail. Include a running head and up to 8 key words.

ABSTRACT

Not exceeding 150 words should incorporate data on background, objective or hypothesis, subjects, methods or plan, results, conclusions.

LABORATORY VALUES

Should be described in both the International System of Units (SI units) and in metric units in parentheses.

FOOTNOTES

The text should be typed and numbered consecutively at the foot of the appropriate page, using a line for separation from the text.

REFERENCES

Should be cited consecutively in the text as superscript numerals, and listed in the same numerical order at the end of the paper. List the names of all authors.

EXAMPLES OF REFERENCES:

Journal article:

Davies EA, Jones TW. Hypoglycemia in children with diabetes: Incidence, counter-regulation and cognitive dysfunction. J Pediatr Endocrinol Metab 1998; 11 (Suppl 1): 177-182.

Book:

Merimee TJ, Laron Z. Growth Hormone, IGF-I and Growth - New Views of Old Concepts. London-Tel Aviv: Freund Publishing House Ltd., 1996; pp 266.

Chapter in book:

Laron Z, Wasserman M. The young adult growth hormone deficient patients in whom treatment had been stopped at end of puberty. In: Laron Z, Butenandt O, eds. Growth Hormone Replacement Therapy in Adults - Pros and Cons. Tel Aviv-London: Freund Publishing House Ltd., 1993; 21-30.

Personal communications should not be included in the list of references, but may be cited in the text in parentheses. Papers accepted and in press may be listed, mentioning the journal.

ILLUSTRATIONS

Figures should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals. Legends should be typed double-spaced on a separate sheet. Submit one set of original glossy prints, and three sets of clean, sharp photocopies. Name of first author and number and top of the figure should be indicated by a soft pencil on the back of each figure. The cost of colour illustrations will be charged to the author. One page of colour printing costs US$ 1,000; each subsequent page costs $800.

TABLES

Each table must be typed on a separate sheet and numbered consecutively using Arabic numbers. Large tables will be treated as figures, and must be of acceptable quality for printing.

SHORT COMMUNICATIONS

Including illustrative patient reports should be structured as an extended abstract, not exceeding four typed pages including up to six references, one table and/or one figure.

FORUM CORRESPONDENCE

Consisting of comments on a published paper or presenting a view on an important issue should not exceed one typed page including references.

REPRINTS

Twenty-five reprints will be supplied free of charge for each article. Additional reprints can be ordered from the publisher.

GALLEY PROOFS

Only printers' errors may be corrected. There will be no page charges.

COPYRIGHT RESPONSIBILITY

This is clearly the author's own responsibility. If any figure(s), illustration(s), table(s) or extended quotation(s), etc. are to be taken from material(s) previously published, the author(s) must secure reproduction permission from the copyright owner.

ENQUIRIES

Abstracts of Pediatric Endocrinology and Diabetes Meetings and advertisements will be published against payment. All such enquiries and subscriptions should be addressed to the Production Editor, Naomi Kingsley, Freund Publishing House Ltd., P.O. Box 35010, Tel Aviv, Israel. Fax +972-3-562-8538, Tel. +972-3-562 8540, e-mail h_freund@netvision.net.il. All other editorial correspondence should be addressed to the Editor-in-Chief.

The original manuscript and diagrams will be discarded one month after publication unless there is a written request for the material to be returned to the author.
