Sino-Iberoamerican Interaction provides a first-class academic platform for research on interactive relations between China and Spanish-Portuguese-speaking countries. From a bilateral or multilateral point of view, the journal primarily focuses on economic and trade relations, as well as political studies, cultural exchange and international relations. The extent of research goes from historical studies and studies on current situation to future vision, aiming to encourage exchange and cooperation between China and Spanish-Portuguese-speaking countries in an effective way, and to contribute to the idea of “a community with shared future for mankind”.

The journal Sino-Iberoamerican Interaction is by far the only academic journal which is published in Spanish and Portuguese and is dedicated to research on interactive relations between China, Iberia and Latin America.

La revista Interacción Sino-Iberoamericana proporciona una plataforma académica para estudiar las interacciones entre China y los países de habla hispana y portuguesa. Partiendo del punto de vista bilateral o multilateral, la revista se centra principalmente en las relaciones económicas y comerciales, así como en las interacciones políticas, los intercambios culturales y las relaciones internacionales. Las investigaciones incluidas cubren la historia, la situación actual y la visión futura de estas relaciones, con el objetivo de orientar eficazmente la práctica de intercambios amistosos y relaciones de cooperación, y construir una “comunidad de futuro compartido para la humanidad”.

La revista Interacción Sino-Iberoamericana es, hasta ahora, la única revista académica, publicada en español y portugués, que se dedica al estudio de las interacciones entre China, Iberia y América Latina.
