The journal, founded by Prof. Ariel Porat in 2000, specializes in the application to legal problems of insights developed in other disciplines, such as moral and political theory, epistemology, history, cultural studies, social sciences, economics and game theory, probability theory, and cognitive psychology. The range of issues dealt with by the journal is virtually unlimited, in line with its commitment to the cross-disciplinary cultivation of ideas. Contributors to the journal are distinguished legal scholars working in different "law and . . ." areas. The journal also strives to offer a forum for contributions to legal theory by scholars working in disciplines outside of law.
