

Illustrations

Following page 230

1. Maxim Gorky on a visit to Makarenko's labor colony, 1928
2. The first band of labor colonist-musicians assembles, late 1920s
3. An assembly of the colony's council of commanders
4. Comradely admonition: children with slogans shame those who "refuse to liquidate their illiteracy"
5. A group of workers joins the Party collectively, 1924
6. Another comradely admonition: a comrades' court in a collective farm, early 1930s
7. An assembly of the leaders of class collectives in a standard girls' school, 1952
8. Mutual surveillance in action: sanitary patrols check the hygienic condition of their classmates, 1952
9. Individualization: S. A. Grigoriev's "Discussion of an F grade," late 1940s
10. Another instance of individualization: S. A. Grigoriev's "Joining the Komsomol," late 1940s
11. Changing emphasis in Party purges, January 1933
12. Graphic representation of the purge: L. Alekhin's "Screened!," late 1930s
13. A model purge: a secretary of the Oktiabr'sky district Party committee undergoes a purge, Moscow, 1933
14. A standard purge: a Party member undergoes a purge at the Volodarsky Textile Factory, Leningrad, July 1933

15. An assembly at the Kirov Tractor Factory during the Party purge, 1933
16. The Party court embodied: the presidium of the Vasileostrovsky district control commission, 1934
17. Verification of Party documents, Central district committee, Leningrad, 1936
18. The height of the individualization drive: a public reading of Stalin's March 1937 speech
19. Self-immolation of the Party: a Party reelection conference of the Krasnogvardeisky district committee, May 1937
20. A group of delegates to the Leningrad Party reelection conference, May 1937
21. Results of the reelection campaign, May 1937
22. A benign face of power at the Elektrosila Factory, 1972
23. Drawing of a Sensory-Motor Integrator