

Illustrations

FIGURES

1.	Detail from the Official Map of "Chinatown" in San Francisco , 1885	39
2.	"San Francisco's Three Graces," 1882	52
3.	"Loathsome practice of mouth spray in the Chinese Laundries," 1880	69
4.	Chinatown opium den, circa 1905	92
5.	Underground Opium Den , 1900	93
6.	Cooking a meal during the bubonic plague in San Francisco, 1900	141
7.	Public Health Service officers during the San Francisco plague epidemic, 1908	154
8.	Union label advertisement, 1902	170
9.	Medical inspection of Chinese men at Angel Island, 1923	185
10.	Interrogation of a Chinese immigrant, Angel Island, 1923	197
11.	Contestants in the YWCA's Chinese Well Baby Contest, 1928	216
12.	San Francisco Chinese Health Center, Well Baby Clinic, circa 1934	217
13.	Babies' Aid and the Mei Lun Yuen home, 1950	223
14.	Chinese American family in a cramped tenement apartment, circa 1939	235
15.	Dedication ceremony for Ping Yuen East, 1951	241
16.	Model living room in Ping Yuen East, 1951	243

- |     |                                                                  |     |
|-----|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 17. | Ping Yuen's first family, 1951                                   | 244 |
| 18. | The Chinese bachelor "Dr." Lee Ten Lai after his arrest,1955 | 254 |

MAPS

- |    |                                                 |     |
|----|-------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. | Residential districts in San Francisco          | 26  |
| 2. | Chinatown institutions in the twentieth century | 208 |