

Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	ix
INTRODUCTION San Francisco Was a Wide-Open Town	1
ORAL HISTORY José Sarria	20
1   Transgender and Gay Male Cultures from the 1890s through the 1960s	25
ORAL HISTORY Reba Hudson	63
2   Lesbian Space, Lesbian Territory: San Francisco's North Beach District, 1933–1954	68
ORAL HISTORY Joe Baron	102
3   Policing Queers in the 1940s and 1950s: Harassment, Prosecution, and the Legal Defense of Gay Bars	108
ORAL HISTORY Del Martin and Phyllis Lyon	148
4   “A Queer Ladder of Social Mobility”: San Francisco's Homophile Movements, 1953–1960	159
ORAL HISTORY George Mendenhall	194
5   Queer Cooperation and Resistance: A Gay and Lesbian Movement Comes Together in the 1960s	200
CONCLUSION Marketing a Queer San Francisco	237
APPENDIX A
Map of North Beach Queer Bars and Restaurants, 1933–1965	243
APPENDIX B
List of Interviewees	246
NOTES	247
INDEX	303

---

Plates follow page 180

This page intentionally left blank