

Contents

List of Figures	xi
List of Tables	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction	I
1. First Impressions: Chinese Exclusion and the Introduction of Immigration Documentation, 1875–1909	22
2. Photographic Paper Sons: Resisting Immigration Identity Documentation, 1893–1943	67
3. Ellis Island as an Observation Station: Spectacle and Inspection, 1892–1924	104
4. Ellis Island as a Photo Studio: The Honorific Ethnographic Image, 1904–26	123
5. The Imaginary Line: Passing and Passports on the Mexican-U.S. Border, 1906–17	174
6. The Dividing Line: Documentation on the Mexican-U.S. Border, 1917–34	192
Conclusion	221
Notes	231
Bibliography	279
Index	307

