To Anna-rose Stebbins and Molly McGinnis. Herpetologists' wives are very special people. They continuously put up with dead specimens in the freezer, live salamanders in refrigerator containers, escaped lizards in their kitchens, snakes in living room terrariums, tortoises on the sundeck, sea turtles in the backyard pool, and "vacations" that often consist of camp-outs at hot, desert sites. Within this exclusive grouping, Anna-rose and Molly are two of the very best!

University of California Press, one of the most distinguished university presses in the United States, enriches lives around the world by advancing scholarship in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. Its activities are supported by the UC Press Foundation and by philanthropic contributions from individuals and institutions. For more information, visit www.ucpress.edu.
