

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations vii

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction i

- 1 • The Origins of “Antibusing” Politics: From
New York Protests to the Civil Rights Act 23
- 2 • Surrender in Chicago: Cities’ Rights and the Limits of Federal Enforcement of School Desegregation 54
- 3 • Boston before the “Busing Crisis”: Black Education
Activism and Official Resistance in the Cradle of Liberty 77
- 4 • Standing against “Busing”: Bipartisan and
National Political Opposition to School
Desegregation 93
- 5 • Richard Nixon’s “Antibusing” Presidency 114
- 6 • “Miserable Women on Television”: Irene
McCabe, Television News, and Grassroots “Antibusing”
Politics 142
- 7 • “It’s Not the Bus, It’s Us”: The Complexity of Black
Opinions on “Busing” 168

8 • Television News and the Making of the Boston
“Busing Crisis” 190

Conclusion 209

Notes 213

Index 259

AT WWW.WHYBUSINGFAILED.COM

Ways to Teach “Busing” Differently

Video Clips

Images

Selected Research Materials