

Illustrations

1. Deinstitutionalization of mental hospitals and rise of incarceration / xiii
2. Demonstration models for controlling plague, Panama-Pacific International Exposition, 1915 / 45
3. Entrance to the Race Betterment Exhibit, Panama-Pacific International Exposition, 1915 / 52
4. Mexicans waiting to be disinfected at El Paso street bridge, 1917 / 62
5. Mexican man being administered the smallpox vaccination at El Paso immigration station, 1917 / 63
6. Calculation of cumulative costs saved by deportations from California state institutions, 1930 / 89
7. Sterilizations in California state institutions by year, 1935-44 / 117
8. Diagnoses in California state institutions, 1935-44 / 118
9. Percentages of sterilized patients with Spanish surnames in Sonoma, Patton, and Pacific Colony, 1935-44 / 123
10. Sterilization recommendation for a seventeen-year-old Mexican-origin girl at Pacific Colony, 1941 / 124
11. Sterilization recommendation for a man of Canadian origin at Stockton State Hospital, 1935 / 129
12. Letter written by an inmate at Patton State Hospital opposing his sterilization, 1947 / 133

13. Dedication of Charles M. Goethe Arboretum, 1961 / 168
14. Time line accompanying redwood slice at the Charles M. Goethe Arboretum / 169
15. Woman entering American Institute of Family Relations office, 1952 / 192
16. Paul Popenoe demonstrating the Johnson Temperament Analysis Test / 199
17. Protest in Los Angeles against forced sterilizations, 1974 / 228