

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	xi
Preface: Why California Labor History?	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii

PART I: BEFORE THE BEGINNING

1 · Where in California Is Its Labor History?	3
2 · On a Mission: How Work Destroyed Native California	9

PART II: EARLY DAYS

3 · Striking Gold	25
4 · “All That Is Solid Melts into Air”: Gold Rush San Francisco	32
5 · Work, Leisure, and the Struggle for the Eight-Hour Day	46
6 · Sandlots and Silver Kings: The Workingmen’s Party of California	60
7 · Building Paradise: The Making of the Los Angeles Working Class	77
8 · Newspapers, Railroads, and the Los Angeles Labor Movement	89
9 · Land, Machines, and Farm Labor	102
10 · The Oxnard Sugar Beet Workers Strike	114

PART III:
FROM PRIDE OF CRAFT TO INDUSTRIAL UNIONISM

- 11 • Building San Francisco 131
- 12 • Organizing San Francisco 144
- 13 • Carmen, Women, and Their Unions 155
- 14 • Otistown: Los Angeles at the Turn of the Century 169
- 15 • Almost Mayor: Bombs, Ballots, and Fusion Politics 181
- 16 • Open Shop: California Workers in the Jazz Age 191

PART IV:
DIVISIONS IN THE GROWING HOUSE OF LABOR

- 17 • Radical Responses to the Great Depression 211
- 18 • The San Francisco General Strike 229
- 19 • The CIO: Civil War and Civil Rights 247
- 20 • Arsenal of Democracy: Integrating Industrial California during World War II 262
- 21 • “We Called It a Work Holiday”: The Oakland General Strike 280
- 22 • Hollywood to Bakersfield: Poverty in the Valley of Plenty 292

PART V:
THE ERA OF BUSINESS UNIONISM

- 23 • Cold War Prosperity: Labor Becomes “Middle Class” 307
- 24 • Labor and Politics 319
- 25 • “Si Se Puede”: The United Farm Workers 332
- 26 • The Rise of Public Sector Unionism 348
- 27 • Creating the Conditions for Teaching and Learning to Happen 359
- 28 • Feminist Collective Bargaining Meets the Civil Service 369

PART VI:
REINVENTING CALIFORNIA LABOR

- 29 · The Decline of Manufacturing Unionism 383
- 30 · Justice for Janitors: Organizing Immigrant Workers 398
- 31 · Teachers, Nurses, and Firefighters: The Alliance for a Better
California 414
- 32 · Labor and the Community: Reclaiming California's Future 426
- Afterword: A Place in the Sun 443
- List of Labor Organizations and Acronyms 451
- Bibliographic Note 455
- Sources 461
- Index 483

