

CONTENTS

Prologue xi

Preface xv

SECTION ONE • PROVOCATIONS 1

1 • Introduction 3

Roller-Skating 30

2 • Rethinking Eating Disorders 31

Little Debbie 62

3 • Eating Disorders as Technologies of Presence 63

For the Ladies 85

SECTION TWO • FRAMEWORKS 87

4 • Identifying the Problem: When Is an Eating Disorder
(Not) an Eating Disorder? 89

Spinning 109

5 • A Hell That Saves You: Cedar Grove's
Staff and Programs 110

Lettuce Sandwich 142

6 • Fixing Time: Chronicity, Recovery, and Trajectories of Care at Cedar Grove 143

Liquidated 175

SECTION THREE • DYNAMICS 177

7 • Loosening the Ties That Bind: Unmooring 183
Mortifications 214

8 • Me, Myself, and Ed: Recalibrating 215
Calculated Risks 242

9 • “Fat” Is Not a Feeling: Developing New Ways of Presencing 243
Looking for the Exit 274

SECTION FOUR • RECURSIONS 275

10 • Running on Empty: Relationships of Care in a Culture of Deprivation 277
Breaking 303

11 • Capitalizing on Care: Precarity, Vulnerability, and Failed Subjects 305
Spark 321

12 • Conclusions: Where Do We Go from Here? 322
Afterword 331

Acknowledgments 337

Notes 339

Works Cited 357

Index 371