
Contents

Preface	ix
Nancy E. Dowd
 Introduction: Justice for Kids	 1
Nancy E. Dowd
 PART I System Change
1 Redefining the Footprint of Juvenile Justice in America	21
Shay Bilchik
2 Delinquency and Daycare	39
David R. Katner
3 Challenging the Overuse of Foster Care and Disrupting the Path to Delinquency and Prison	62
Leslie Joan Harris
4 Preventing Incarceration through Special Education and Mental Health Collaboration for Students with Emotional and Behavioral Disorders	82
Joseph C. Gagnon and Brian R. Barber
5 Looking for Air: Excavating Destructive Educational and Racial Policies to Build Successful School Communities	107
Theresa Glennon
 PART II Race, Gender, and Sexual Orientation
6 The Black Nationalist Cure to Disproportionate Minority Contact	135
Kenneth B. Nunn

7	Girl Matters: Unfinished Work Lawanda Ravoira and Vanessa Patino	157
8	Supporting Queer Youth Sarah Valentine	180
PART III Legal Socialization and Policing
9	Detering Serious and Chronic Offenders: Research Findings and Policy Thoughts from the Pathways to Desistance Study Thomas A. Loughran, Alex R. Piquero, Jeffrey Fagan, and Edward P. Mulvey	201
10	“I Want to Talk to My Mom”: The Role of Parents in Police Interrogation of Juveniles Stephen M. Reba, Randee J. Waldman, and Barbara Bennett Woodhouse	219
PART IV Model Programs
11	Moving beyond Exclusion: Integrating Restorative Practices and Impacting School Culture in Denver Public Schools Thalia N. C. González and Benjamin Cairns	241
12	The Line of Prevention Khary Lazarre-White	263
13	What It Takes to Transform a School inside a Juvenile Justice Facility: The Story of the Maya Angelou Academy David Domenici and James Forman Jr.	283
	About the Contributors	307
	Index	311