
Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction E. Melanie DuPuis	I
The Emergence of Air Pollution as a Problem
1 Perceptions and Effects of Late Victorian Air Pollution Peter Brimblecombe	15
2 “The Invisible Evil”: Noxious Vapor and Public Health in Manchester during the Age of Industry Harold L. Platt	27
3 Public Perceptions of Smoke Pollution in Victorian Manchester Stephen Mosley	51
4 Uplands Downwind: Acidity and Ecological Change in the Southeast Lancashire Moorlands Matthew Osborn	77
5 The “Smoky City” between the Wars Angela Gugliotta	100
6 The Merits of the Precautionary Principle: Controlling Automobile Exhausts in Germany and the United States before 1945 Frank Uekoetter	119
7 Interpreting the London Fog Disaster of 1952 Peter Thorsheim	154

8	Localizing Smog: Transgressions in the Therapeutic Landscape Joshua Dunsby	170
	Air Pollution Policy Today
9	A Fine Balance: Automobile Pollution Control Strategies in California Sudhir Chella Rajan	203
10	Who Owns the Air? Clean Air Act Implementation as a Negotiation of Common Property Rights E. Melanie DuPuis	223
11	Air Pollution in Spain: A “Peripheral” Nation Transforms Alexander Farrell	241
12	Clearing the Air and Breathing Freely: The Health Politics of Air Pollution and Asthma Phil Brown, Stephen Zavestoski, Brian Mayer, Theo Luebke, Joshua Mandelbaum, and Sabrina McCormick	261
13	Invisible People, Invisible Places: Connecting Air Pollution and Pesticide Drift in California Jill Harrison	288
14	Notes from the Field: Air Pollution Engineering as Cultural Experience Roger K. Raufer	305
15	The Social and Political Construction of Air Pollution: Air Pollution Policies for Mexico City, 1979–1996 José Luis Lezama	324
	Afterword Joel A. Tarr	337
	Contributors	343
	Index	349